Case No.2:2017er00201

Dear Judge Coughenour

I am writing on behalf of Darryl Kilgore who will be before you in your court room. I want to appeal to you regarding Darryl, I have known him sense the 1970's. I would like to express to you Darryl is a good person and I personally witness Darryl helping and supporting people that even I questioned .One day three years ago, he ran into to me and we talked about Real Estate, and I told him this is a good business to get in, and that I was already in the Business, so I begin to teach him about Real Estate He was such a fast learner even I began to learn some things from him. I can only tell you that he told me that this is what he wanted to do.

In conclusion: He may have been involved in some illegal business because of what ever the reason may be. He was trying to work and be a good law abiding person. I pray and ask you to be merciful to him in this present case that is before you.

Sincerely,

James Mitchell/ Manager of Real Estate
